

Arts & Heritage Day, Feb. 6-7, 2018 – 3 issues

State Capital Budget

- Thank legislators for 2017-2019 Capital Budget funding for:
 - Building for the Arts
 - Heritage Capital Projects

State Operating Budget

- Request funding for Folk and Traditional Arts Apprenticeship/Job Stimulation Program (a partnership of ArtsWA/Washington State Arts Commission with Humanities Washington)
- Request funding for Humanities Washington Speakers Bureau

WASHINGTON STATE
ARTS COMMISSION

humanities | h
WASHINGTON | w

Building for the Arts & Heritage Capital Projects

Projects are chosen after rigorous state-wide competition and vetted by a panel of experienced professionals.

Projects impact counties and legislative districts across the state

Benefits

- Most projects are already underway
- Supports skilled labor jobs
- Local economic development
- Preservation and development of vital community organizations

Power House Theatre Walla Walla

Building for the Arts 2017-2019

State funding to arts and cultural groups for major capital improvements

Full program funding recommended for 16 projects.

$12 Million allocated in the 2017-2019 capital budget

Tacoma Art Museum and Sylvia Center for the Arts (Bellingham)

2017-19 BFA Projects (16 total)

Town Hall Association (Seattle)

Pacific Northwest Ballet—Francia Russell Ctr (Bellevue)

Seattle Art Museum (Seattle)

Chewelah Performing & Cultural Arts (Chewelah)

Seattle Opera (Seattle)

Tacoma Art Museum (Tacoma)

Fort Worden Foundation (Port Townsend)

Seattle Repertory Theatre (Seattle)

Richard Hugo House (Seattle)

Washington Center for the Performing Arts (Olympia)

Admiral Theatre Foundation (Bremerton)

Pratt Fine Arts Center (Seattle)

Northwest Choirs (Seattle)

Power House Theatre Walla Walla Inc. (Walla Walla)

Delridge Neighborhoods Development Assoc. (Seattle)

Sylvia Center for the Arts (Bellingham)

2017-19 HC Projects (35 total)

Heritage Capital Projects 2017-2019

State funding to arts and cultural groups for major capital improvements

Full program funding recommended for 35 projects.

$9 Million allocated in the 2017-2019
capital budget

Folk and Traditional Arts Job Stimulation Program: Job Creation and Skills Training

A partnership between ArtsWA, Humanities Washington, and the Center for Washington Cultural Traditions

Request: $80,000

- Will conserve, evolve and share important traditions
- Economic driver via job skills training
- Representing a wide range of cultures and communities.
- Federal funds matched dollar-for-dollar

Left to right: Seafair Indian Days Powwow at the Daybreak Star Cultural Center, Seattle; Shuttlebirds Tattng Guild demonstration, Spokane; Rosemaling demonstration, Sons of Norway, Bothell. Photos by Kristin Sullivan.